

Beyond Disciplines

An International Journal of Central University of Karnataka

Articles Invited

Articles are invited for the journal published by Central University of Karnataka. All research articles in this journal undergo rigorous peer review based on the initial screening by the editorial committee and anonymous peer reviewers.

Aims and Scope

This journal is an interdisciplinary academic journal that aims to provide a platform for exchange of ideas across disciplines with a holistic understanding of the society. Its objective is to provide opportunity for rigorous and critical analysis of existing ideas, policies and conventional theories, contributing to new approaches. The primary purpose is to reinvent the tradition of philosophical dialogues across the disciplines. We invite articles from all disciplines, with the expectation that the work is accessible to all readers across humanities, social sciences and sciences. Eminent and young scholars, scientists, technocrats as well as policy makers are encouraged to publish articles in this journal.
