ABOUT KALABURAGI

Kalaburagi, which once flourished with discourses on thoughts of humanism and universalism, is now an educational hub of this region catering to the educational and research needs of not only the students of this region but also the students from every nook and corner of our nation. Kalaburagi is the major city and district headquarters in Kalyan Karnataka region of Karnataka. The recorded history of Kalaburagi dates back to the 6th Century A.D. The region was under the successive rule of the Rashtrakutas, the Chalukyas, the Kalaharis, the Yadavas, the Hoysalas, the Kakatyas, the Bahamanis and the Mughals. Monuments in and around the city like Kwaja Banda Nawaz Dargah, Fort of Bahamani Kingdom and Hafta Gumbaz are the legacies of this history. The region is also home to the glorious Sharana Movement. Sharana Basaveshwara Temple and Buddha Vihar are the other places of cultural interest.

The motto of the University “Vidhya Dhadhathi Vinayam” (Knowledge is kindness) has a lot of meaning to communicate to us. Education is a path to attain knowledge. It is the hallmark of any civilized society. It is only in a civilized society, alternate perspectives thrive and the history of the place tells us that Kalaburagi’s past glory was a paradigm of a society that embraced diverse ideologies that are still quite relevant in today’s context. Kalaburagi, the land of Basavanna, influenced by many philosophies including that of great Khwaja Banda Nawaz with symbols of ancient faiths and practices in places like Sannati and Kanaganahalli epitomizes a confluence of multiple traditions and cultures with the seeds of harmony inbuilt in them.

ABOUT CUK

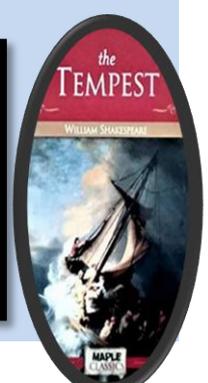

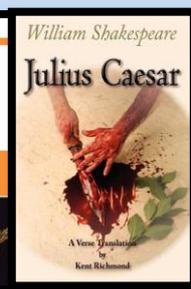

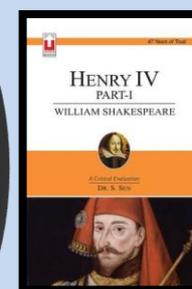

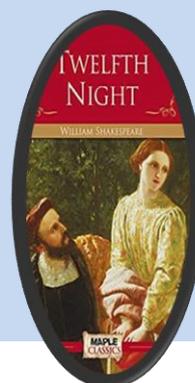

Central University of Karnataka (CUK) is one of the new rapidly growing central universities established by the Act of Parliament, of India in 2009. The University has 654 acres campus situated near Kadaganchi village, about 30 Km from Kalaburagi city towards Solapur. The main objective of this Central University is to integrate the components of Teaching, Research, Innovation, and Skill Development with an aspiration to excel in Integrated Masters (IMA English), Post graduate and Doctoral programs.

The Central University of Karnataka which is a decade old now has played a vital role in making quality education accessible to thousands of students. With its sprawling 654 acre area, CUK has the second largest campus among all the central universities in the country. CUK is one of the fastest growing universities in the country in terms of infrastructure, recruitment, admission, examination, research, outreach programs, digitalization, Wi-Fi connectivity and overall beautification of the University campus.

THEME OF THE WEBINAR

Shakespeare's life and works continues to yield surprises even to this time. There is an ebullient fluctuation of reinterpretations, pedagogy revaluations, discoveries and adaptations. One of the most interesting literary developments, parallel to other related works in metropolis, has been the growing native efforts to rewrite, reinscribe and translate Shakespeare to suit or express the invigorated voices and values of native cultures. From African nations to those of Asia, an impressive corpus has emerged. To analyse the motives and purposes of a native writer using the material of the Bard and to throw light on the theoretical stance underlying such efforts would be interesting, to say the least. Apart from assuming importance in the wake of persistent efforts to rewrite the histories of the postcolonial societies, such indignation complicates, if not challenges, the traditional (Anglican or Eurocentric?) interpretation of Shakespeare as embodied voice of western hegemonic culture. Native Shakespeare, in that compelling contrapuntal and counterhegemonic production is worth considering for the international webinar.

*"To be, or not to be: that is the question:
Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer
The slings and arrows of outrageous fortune,
Or to take arms against a sea of troubles,
And by opposing end them. To die: to sleep;"*

Hamlet contemplating suicide in his famous soliloquy. (Hamlet)
